THE BEST PINOT NOIR WINES UNDER $40 THAT I ADORE

GARY FARRELL WINERY

As you know by now I adore Gary Farrell Wines, specifically their single vineyard wines which Winemaker Theresa does so so well. However, if opening a $50 - $70 bottle of wine is more of a special occasion for you lucky for you they offer a Russian River Pinot Noir blend which their General Manager Nancy describes as “the little black dress, perfect for all occasions” . The first time I tried this I was blown away. It was just as rich and lovely as the signal vineyard Gary Farrell Wines yet a much more accessible price point in the low $40. Purchase online at wine.com here or at Gary Farrell Winery here.

Me all smiles at one of my many visits to Gary Farrell Winery. Read more about their fabulous Wine & Culinary pairing experiences on the blog here.
