LES VINS DE L'ANNÉE

LES TROIS BEAUNES PREMIER CRU DE CHANSON

Since its rebirth at the end of the last century by Bollinger, since the installation of the patient yet very effective work of Jean-Pierre Confuron, technical director of justifiably lauded convictions and talent, Chanson has become one of the most reliable names in Burgundy, though not enough wine lovers have become aware of it. What was needed was a reference year, and the 2015 will be it, in particular for the domaine's precious landholdings in Beaune. All of these wines, of unparalleled density and finesse, are marvelous today and will continue to be so for the next 50 years. Chanson and Confuron have succeeded in producing three legendary 2015 Beaune Premier Crus.
